Reading

Read the passage then choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d:

Since the beginning of time, man's life has been a continuous struggle كفاح. This struggle has always been connected with his daily needs. At the beginning, man struggled to feed and clothe himself and to keep himself warm. So, he invented hunting weapons, weaving and making fire.

As modern man's needs have grown more and more complex; his struggle has taken another shape. For example, he does not only struggle to make a fire to warm himself and cook his food, but he seeks to control the hidden powers of nature that could run his machines and make his life easier and more comfortable.

To achieve that, he has depended on petroleum. But, as the price of petroleum is getting higher and higher and the supply is getting lower and lower man is now turning to other sources of energy such as the atom or the sun.
